HON 391: Anarchy

HON 394: Politics and Civic Engagement

Civic engagement can be defined as citizens working together to make a difference in the community, and the goal of civic engagement is to address public concerns and promote the quality of the community. This course will examine the political nature of civic engagement; accordingly, "politics" is an important concept to understand. This course is an attempt to encourage Honors students to practice civic inquiry across all fields of study. The course will enhance the student's capacity to evaluate the political landscape and make informed decisions about participation in our democratic republic.
