

Honors Guidelines for International Education

GENERAL GUIDELINES

It is recommended that the student first speak with an Honors advisor or Assistant Director to discuss various options available. No more than 4 units may be applied toward Honors requirements each term abroad although 3 units is most common. The complete form (including all signatures) and proposal must be returned to the Honors Office, Dean, or designated V approval. Incomplete applications or proposals will not be considered. Plan to submit COMPLETED proposal NO FEWER than 2 WEEKS before departure.

Please list any/all classes you might be interested in taking that you would like considered for Honors credit. These should be classes that have a focus on the particular area/country/city/region/culture in which you will be studying possible classes is okay. If a proposal is denied, the student will be notified immediately and will be provided an opportunity to discuss possible options to the proposal with the Honors Dean or designated advisor for possible resubmission.

Students must secure the approval of the Honors Dean or designated advisor prior to departure for their international education experience. Plan to submit COMPLETED proposal NO FEWER than 2 WEEKS before departure.

IGP GUIDELINES

IGP Students have the option to earn either 3 or 7 units while abroad. Choose ONE of the following options:

- For 3 units, act as discussion leader for other IGP students for fall (LAN 340H)
- For 4 units, complete Honors Fieldwork Option during Spring (8 units of 408 and 4 units of 408H to satisfy 4 units of Honors Capstone requirements); or
- For 7 units, do BOTH of the above (discussion leader and Honors Fieldwork Option)

Submit IGP at end of Spring term prior to year abroad. Note: Another 3 units of LAN 450CH is possible in your return term.
